Senator Ben Nelson 720 Hart Senate Office Building United States Senate Washington, D.C. 20510

RE: MUR 6502

Dear Senator Nelson:

By letter dated October 17, 2011, the Federal Election Commission notified you of a complaint alleging violations of certain sections of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended.

On July 10, 2012, the Commission found, on the basis of the information in the complaint and other information, that there is no reason to believe that you violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f). Accordingly, the Commission closed its file in this matter.

Documents related to the case will be placed on the public record within 30 days. See Statement of Policy Regarding Disclosure of Closed Enforcement and Related Files, 68 Fed. Reg. 70,426 (Dec. 18, 2003) and Statement of Policy Regarding Placing First General Counsel's Reports on the Public Record, 74 Fed. Reg. 66132 (Dec. 14, 2009). The Factual and Legal Analysis, which explains the Commission's findings, is enclosed for your information.

If you have any questions, please contact Thomas J. Andersen, the attorney assigned to this matter, at (202) 694-1650.

Sincerely,

Roy Q. Luckett

Acting Assistant General Counsel

3 4	FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS
5	RESPONDENT: Senator Ben Nelson	MUR 6502
6 7	I. INTRODUCTION
8	This matter was generated by a complaint filed with the Fed	leral Election Commission by
9	Mark Fahleson, Chairman, Nebraska Republican Party, alleging vio	plations of the Federal
10	Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"), by Senato	or Ben Nelson.
11	II. FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS
12	This matter concerns allegations that the Nebraska Democra	atic Party (f/k/a Nebraska
13	Democratic State Central Committee)1 ("NDP") made, and Senator	Ben Nelson of Nebraska and
14	his principal campaign committee, Ben Nelson 2012 ("Nelson Com	amittee"), accepted, excessive
15	in-kind contributions in the form of coordinated party expenditures	when the NDP paid over
16	$450,000 to create and air a series of television and radio advertises	ments that featured Senator
17	Nelson beginning in July 2011. The complainant asserts that the N	DP ads satisfy the test for
18	coordinated party communications articulated in the Act and Comm	nission regulations because
19	the ads constitute republication of Nelson Committee campaign ma	terials.
20	As discussed below, the ads do not satisfy the content prong	of the coordinated party
21	communications test under 11 C.F.R. § 109.37(a)(2)(i)-(iii), and the	e Commission finds no reason
22	to believe that Senator Ben Nelson violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).

I voted against this so-called debt reduction plan because it left Medicare vulnerable to billions in unnecessary cuts while using budget gimmicks and accounting tricks to create the illusion of cutting spending now. We need to cut spending and balance the budget, but not on the backs of senior citizens.

There are those that want to destroy Social Security and Medicare and turn them into a voucher system or let Wall Street run it. This budget plan is the first step in that direction. So stand with me. Go to SaveNebraskaSeniors.com and sign my online petition to protect Social Security and Medicare. Tell Washington to keep their hands off of your retirement and get their own house in order.

Paid for by the Nebraska Democratic Party and authorized by Ben Nelson.

Ben Nelson: They don't get it. They put politics ahead of what is best for the country. We need to balance the budget, but not on the backs of senior citizens, bring our troops home with pride and dignity, and invest in American jobs and America's future. I am Ben Nelson, I approve this message because we need to stop playing politics and find common sense solutions.

Television Ad 27 - "Skunk"

Ben Nelson: I am Ben Nelson. I approve this message because as Governor I balanced eight budgets, cut taxes 41 times and left the state with a big surplus. As your Senator, I sponsored a constitutional amendment to require a balanced budget, but I voted against raising the debt ceiling because Washington's budget deal didn't really cut spending, but could cut millions from Medicare. Like most Nebraskans, I cm smell a skunk, and that deal stank even for Washington.

1 National Committee ("DNC"), or that the ads exceeded the NDP's direct candidate contribution

2 limitation. Complaint at 6. See 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(d) and 441a(h). The complaint contends that

3 the communications satisfy the three-part test for coordinated party communications set out at

4 11 C.F.R. § 109.37. The complaint states that the payment and conduct prongs are met because the NDP paid for the communications and Senator Nelson is featured in the ads and states his approval and authorization of the ads. Complaint at 6-7.

The complaint alleges that the content prong is satisfied because the ads disseminate, republish, or distribute campaign materials prepared by a candidate, the cendidata's authorized committee, or an agent of the foregoing. See 11 C.F.R. § 109.37(a)(2)(i). Complaint at 7. The "Promise," "Wrong Way," and "Nelson Ad" ads state that Senator Nelson will not balance the budget "on the backs of seniors," a phrase that was used in a "tweet" posted on the Nelson Committee's Twitter account on May 25, 2011. The "Skunk" ad discusses potential Medicare cuts, which was the subject of a May 23, 2011 Nelson Committee tweet that stated "Nebraskans can count on me to stand up for seniors and fulfill our commitments to future generations." Id.; see http://twitter.com/bennelson2012. The complaint argues that the ads republish Nelson Committee campaign materials because Senator Nelson designed the Nelson Committee tweets and created them before the NDP aris aired. The complaint aiso allages that the ads communicate Senator Nelson's "express re-election message" and that they cannot be interpreted as anything but campaign ads. Complaint at 7-8. Since all three prongs of the test for coordinated party communications are satisfied, the complaint asserts, the ads must be treated as a coordinated expenditure, in-kind contribution, or a combination of the two from the NDP to the Nelson Committee. Id. at 7.

MUR 6502 (Senator Ben Nelson) Factual & Legal Analysis Page 5 of 10

1 The NDP's response to the complaint ("NDP Response") asserts that the ads are not 2 contributions or coordinated expenditures. NDP Response at 2. It states that the ads were 3 designed to inform Nebraska Democrats about issues before Congress and featured Senator 4 Nelson because he was the only Nebraska Democrat directly involved in the federal debate. Id. 5 at 1-2. The NDP Response asserts that the ads are not coordinated party communications 6 because the content prong is not satisfied. Id. at 2. The ads aired outside of the 90-day window 7 before any Nebraska election, did not contain express advocacy, and did not republish compaign 8 materials. Id. at 2-3. Citing to two similar matters recently considered by the Commission, 9 MUR 6044 (Musgrove) and MUR 6037 (Merkley), the NDP Response argues that the ads do not 10 republish campaign materials because the NDP created the ads without using any pre-existing 11 graphics, video, or audio materials produced by the Nelson Committee and because use of the 12 common phrase "on the backs of seniors" in the ad and Nelson Committee tweets does not 13 constitute republication. Id. at 3. The Nelson Committee's response to the complaint ("Nelson Committee Response") 14 15 makes similar arguments: that the ads are not coordinated party communications because they 16 do not meet the content prong of the Commission's eoerdination regulation. Nelson Committee Response at 2. The response asserts that Senator Nelson's appearance in the ads does not 17 constitute republication of campaign materials under established Commission precedent because 18 19 the NDP created all of the video and audio content and did not use any pre-existing campaign 20 materials of the Nelson Committee. Id. at 3-4. The Nelson Committee Response also contends that use of the phrase "on the backs of seniors" is not republication of campaign materials 21 22 because it is a short, common phrase that elected officials frequently use. Id. at 4-5. 23 Senator Nelson did not file a response.

B. ANALYSIS

2 A political party committee's communications are coordinated with a candidate, a 3 candidate's authorized committee, or an agent of the candidate or committee when the 4 communication satisfies the three-pronged test set forth at 11 C.F.R. § 109.37: (1) the 5 communication is paid for by a political party committee or its agent; (2) the communication 6 satisfies at least one of the content standards set forth in 11 C.F.R. § 109.37(a)(2); and (3) the 7 communication satisfies at least one of the conduct standards art forth in 11 C.F.R. § 109.21(d). 8 The payment by a political party committee for a communication that is coordinated with a 9 candidate must be treated by the political party committee as either an in-kind contribution to the 10 candidate or a coordinated party expenditure. 11 C.F.R. § 109.37(b). The costs of a coordinated 11 communication must not exceed a political committee's applicable contribution or expenditure 12 limits set forth in the Act. 13 Thus, here, the NDP could not contribute more than $5,000 to the Nelson Committee' or 14 make over $126,100 in coordinated party expenditures on behalf of the Nelson Committee. See 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(a)(2)(A) and 441a(d)(3)(A). In addition, the Nelson Committee and Senator 15 16 Nelson could not knowingly accept an excessive contribution. 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f). 17 1. Payment 18 In this matter, the payment prong of the coordinated communications test is satisfied because the NDP, a political party committee, admits that it paid for the ads. NDP Response at 19

The contribution limitation of $43,100 cited in the complaint reflects the contribution limit to a Senate candidate per campaign shared by the national party committee and the Senatorial campaign committee. 2 U.S.C. § 441a(h).

2. Content

The content prong is satisfied where the communication meets one of the following standards: a public communication that republishes, disseminates, or distributes candidate campaign materials; a public communication containing express advocacy; or a public communication that refers to a clearly identified federal candidate that was publicly distributed or disserninated 90 days or fewer before a primary or general election, and was directed to voters in the jurisdiction of the clearly identified candidate. 11 C.F.R. § 109.37(a)(2)(i)-(iii). The ads aired more than 90 days before any primary or general election in Nebraska and thus do not satisfy the timing standard articulated in the content prong. See 11 C.F.R. § 109.37(a)(2)(iii). Although the complaint does not specifically allege that the ads contain express advocacy, it contends that the ads communicate Senator Nelson's "express re-election message" and that they cannot be interpreted as anything but campaign ads. Complaint at 7-8. Nonetheless, the ads do not contain express advocacy. See 11 C.F.R. § 109.37(a)(2)(ii). Under the Commission's regulations, a communication contains express advocacy when it uses phrases such as "re-elect your Congressman," "vote against Old Hickory," or "Bill McKay in '94," or uses campaign slogan(s) or individual word(s), which in context have no other reasonable meaning than to urge the election or defeat of one or more clearly identified candidate. 11 C.F.R. § 100.22(a). The Commission's regulations also provide that a communication will be considered express advocacy if it contains an "electoral portion" that is "unmistakable, unambiguous, and suggestive of only one meaning" and about which "reasonable minds could not differ as to whether it encourages actions to elect or defeat" a candidate when taken as a whole and with limited reference to external events, such as the proximity to the

- 2 election. 11 C.F.R. § 100.22(b).
- The NDP ads do not contain express advocacy under 11 C.F.R. § 100.22. Although
- 4 Senator Nelson appears in the ads, the ads do not acknowledge his candidacy, and all of the ads
- 5 are focused on legislative issues, including the debt ceiling, Social Security, and Medicare.
- 6 Some of the ads, incloding "Promise" and "Wrong Way," contain a specific call to action to visit
- 7 the website SaveNebraskaSeniors.com. Thus, the ads cannot meet the content prong based on
- 8 express advocacy.
- 9 The complaint argues, and the responses dispute, that the ads republish Nelson
- 10 Committee campaign materials because Senator Nelson personally appears in the ads and
- because the ads contain phrases or themes from Nelson Committee tweets. But these facts do
- 12 not amount to republication. See 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(7)(B)(iii); 11 C.F.R. § 109.23(a).
- Prior Commission "analysis of republication [has] involved pre-existing material
- belonging to or emanating from the campaign." MUR 6044 (Musgrove) Statement of Reasons of
- 15 Commissioners Walther, Petersen, Bauerly, Hunter, and McGahn at 4 citing MUR 5743 (Betty
- 16 Sutton for Congress) and MUR 5672 (Save American Jobs Assoc.). In MUR 6044 (Musgrove),
- 17 the Commission found that a candidate's appearance and participation in an advertisement
- 18 produced and disseminated by the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee ("DSCC") did
- 19 not constitute republication of campaign materials by the DSCC. See id. Following this
- 20 Commission precedent, in this matter, because the NDP created all of the video and audio
- 21 content used in the ads and did not utilize any pre-existing Nelson Committee campaign
- 22 materials, Senator Nelson's appearance in the ads does not constitute republication of campaign
- 23 materials.

Nor do the similarities between some of the ads at issue and Senator Nelson's tweets suffice to establish republication. MUR 6037 (Merkley) is instructive. That MUR involved ads produced by the Democratic Party of Oregon that featured a candidate and contained issues and messages similar to several of the candidate's press releases. Both the party ads and the candidate press releases used the phrase "respect they deserve," but also included different language and phrases. The Office of General Counsel recommended, and the Commission agreed, that the similerities in the materials did not rise to a level sufficient to inflicate republication of campaign materials, although somn Commissioners did not endorse the specific reasoning set forth in the First General Counsel's Report. See MUR 6037 Statement of Reasons of Commissioners Hunter, Petersen, and McGahn at 1; see also MUR 2766 (Auto Dealers and Drivers for Free Trade PAC) (similar sentences used in two campaigns do not rise to the level sufficient to indicate republication of campaign materials because of differences in wording or phrasing). Here, although the Nelson Committee's tweet and the NDP ads use the phrase "on the backs of seniors," that phrase is commonly used in political discourse, and the ads also contained significant additional language that differed from the eampalgn materials. While the NDP ads are thematically similar to the second Nelson Committee tweet that "Nebrasknus can count on me to stand up for seniors and fulfill our commitments to future generations." this also does not appear to rise to the level of republication consistent with Commission precedent. And the content prong of the Commission's coordination regulation is therefore not met. Because the ads do not satisfy the content prong of the coordinated party communications test, the NDP's payment for the ads is not a coordinated party expenditure with the Nelson

- 1 Committee under 11 C.F.R. § 109.37(a)(2)(i)-(iii), and the Commission finds no reason to
- 2 believe that Senator Ben Nelson violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).
